

~Dutch Blitz: A Vonderful Goot Family Card Game! If you want to have a lot of fun with your family while improving everyone's eye-hand coordination, get out your Dutch Blitz cards and begin the fun. Similar to Nertz, this fast paced card game created by German immigrant Werner Ernst George Muller is not for the faint of heart, but for highly energetic people who love speed—at least from time to time. Frankly, Jon and I don't have what it takes to keep up with our children's speed, so we partner together when we play, and even then, come in slower than the children. But then we don't play to win, just to have fun, so we enjoy the interaction. For several months before the conference, we were playing around 40 rounds of this game each night—a Dutch Blitz marathon in which we all had fun! So get out the cards and start playing. On your mark, get ready, get set, go!
