Memorable Christmas Ornaments

Each year I purchase several Christmas ornaments for the children so that they will have a tree full of ornaments for their own homes. To help bind their hearts to one another, many of these ornaments are the same, so that their trees will reflect our family solidarity. This year, I found these adorable skiers to replicate the wonderful family skiing trips we have enjoyed together. Here the three snow people depict Sonia, Jedidiah, and Josiah bunched up together for a delightful run down the mountain.

I can hardly wait until the children open up their stockings on Christmas morning to find these delightful ornaments!
