

 When discussing clothing and gifts for children, Teresa Carr told me that she had purchased some cute things from www.backinthesaddle.comfor her daughter who loves horses. As I looked over the clothing, jewelry, boots, shoes, bags, backpacks, hats, belts, equestrian gear and clothing, ornaments, toys, games, and home d♦or, I understood the appeal for horse lovers. It is a great place to find gifts for both young children and adult children. After clicking on their "About Us," I realized that this was part of a group of direct marketing catalogs that we already received—Potpourri, Expressions, Serengeti, and Young Explorers. If your child loves horses, this is the place to purchase gifts.
