

The Complete Book of Desserts by Martha Day has more than 350 irresistibly sweet temptations for after-dinner indulgence and truly lives up to its title and description. I highly recommend this cookbook as a personal gift to yourself and one for each daughter. Another pretty one I gave the girls is Victoria's Sweet Baking cookbook. May they always remember how much I enjoyed baking sweet delights for them as they in turn do so for their own families.