

The day after the conference found us all quietly resting with a book as we immersed ourselves in quintessential material given to us by speakers and the Botkin family. Ah, to have the opportunity to leisurely spend some time in enlightening our minds and refreshing our spirits after months of utter devotion to conference preparations was a joyous blessing. As homeschoolers, we are so blessed to have such wonderfully edifying materials available to us. We hope that all of you are spending many pleasant hours reading the books you purchased at the conference this year.
